

Use of your personal data

In order to receive your report of a dead animal, we (Woking Borough Council) need to collect your personal data. We will not use the personal data you are providing for any other purpose unless the law allows us to do so.

In order to respond to your report, your personal data might be shared with Serco, who remove dead animals from the public highway, or Surrey County Council. We will not share the personal data you are providing with any other organisation unless the law allows us to do so.

We will hold your personal data for no longer than 7 years after your last correspondence with us. You can contact us to ask us to access or to rectify the personal data we have about you or to object to the processing of it.

More information on how we collect and use your personal data and the control you have over it is available on our website:
